

The real roles and scopes will not be managed through the newly implemented KIS Sales API, but through the KIS Admin API. The individual permissions of the roles can be altered by administrators if necessary.

